Connecting This Resource To Curriculum (Gr. 7-12)

SUCCESS STORIES WITH DR. KARYN is a motivational supplement supporting educational best practices regarding student engagement by making learning experiential and relevant while using several teaching methods (storytelling, video, classroom discussion, exercises).

USING THIS RESOURCE, YOUR STUDENTS WILL LEARN:

- That featured Industries Leaders were successful because of their Emotional Intelligence (ex. resilience, perseverance, etc.)
- Success is measured in many ways (essentially based on a person's values) (Self-Awareness)
- There are many paths to being successful, not just one (trades, culinary, education, business, technology) (Self-Awareness)
- That discovering who you are (Self-Awareness), learning successful habits and developing Emotional Intelligence (resilience, discipline, asking for help etc.) (Student Development) is key to being successful in your life & career
- The importance of starting to develop their Emotional Intelligence today (Student Development)
- The 4 Key Questions (Inquiry Framework):
  #1: Knowing Self: Who am I?
  #2: Exploring Opportunities: What are my opportunities?
  #3: Making Decisions / Goals: Who do I want to become?
  #4: Achieving Goals /Transitions: What is my plan?
- The importance of relationships (Inter-Personal Development) (mentors, positive role models etc.) in becoming successful
- That "Finding Your Dream Career" is a journey and not a destination (the average # is 11 careers / per person), and it's important to know who you are (Self-Awareness), to evolve with your career, opportunities and values (Career Development)
- The importance of reaching out and interviewing Industry Leaders in their community (Career Development)
- That Education is important, and part-time work / co-op / apprenticeships are also very valuable (Career Development)
